Dear

Thank you for helping with arrangements for the briefing for our international affairs faculty at the Agency on August 26th. We appreciate your cooperative spirit and the various presentations which we heard that afternoon.

As a faculty member myself, I appreciate the trend in the Agency toward making many of its studies and rich resources available to the academic community.

Thanks again for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

John A. Bernbaum

SUBJECT : Briefing of Christian College
Consortium/Coalition

1. Confirming our telephone conversation of 29 July 1980, OSR/SEC will brief a faculty seminar of the Christian College Consortium/Coalition on August 26, 1980 from 2 until 4 p.m. in room 1E78. We are expecting around 28 guests whom you will escort and introduce.

2. We are planning to present three short unclassified briefings each to be followed by discussion periods as follows:

STATINTL

Political Control of the Soviet Military

--

Soviet Military Doctrine and Strategy

--

Soviet Strategic Weapons Capabilities and Future Weapons Development

STATINTL

STAT [redacted] will be present during the briefing to answer any questions touching on the SALT II Treaty.

Dear Dr. Bernbaum:

Reference your letter of July 8, 1980 requesting a briefing for approximately 25 professors on August 26, 1980:

As I told you on the phone yesterday, we have been able to arrange a briefing on August 26th from 2-4 pm in one of our Agency theaters. There will be three or four speakers who will discuss the Soviet Union's military program and they will attempt to leave time for a question period at the end of their presentations.

As you know, all members of your group must be U.S. citizens in order to enter the CIA headquarters building. Additionally, we will need at the earliest either (1) the Social Security numbers of all visitors arriving for the briefing or (2) the date and place of birth of each person.

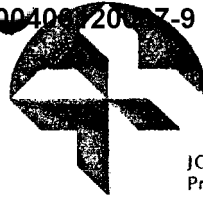

I shall be in touch with you again as the date for your visit approaches so that we can arrange for your entrance onto the grounds, parking, and an escort for your group while in headquarters building. I look forward to meeting you and have every reason to believe that our speakers will present an interesting and worthwhile briefing to the professors accompanying you.

Sincerely,

Associate Coordinator for Academic Relations and External Analytical Support

STAT
Dear [Redacted]

As we discussed on the phone this morning, we are in the process of planning a faculty seminar for professors of international affairs scheduled for late August. The theme of our conference is the Soviet-American strategic balance and nuclear weapons strategy. We expect approximately twenty-five professors to participate.

Would it be possible to arrange a briefing for the afternoon of Tuesday, August 26, 1980, beginning at 1:30 or 2 p.m. on the subject of Soviet strategic weapons capabilities and possible future weapons development? An illustrated briefing would clearly be very beneficial, if possible. I recognize that such a briefing would have to be on an unclassified basis, but it would nevertheless be profitable for our faculty. A two-hour block of time would be best for us.

I appreciate your cooperative spirit. Your office has been very helpful to us in the past and for this we are grateful. We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

J. Bernbaum
